Three Powers of a Positive Attitude

The three powers of a positive attitude lead to a positive work environment. It is nearly impossible for negativity to survive against them. Ask yourself this question: 'How can I give myself, or teach others, these three powers?'

1. A positive, fun attitude that causes good things to happen.
   - Do you or your colleagues have this power?
2. A creative attitude that sees new ideas and many solutions.
   - Do you or your colleagues have this power?
3. An energizing attitude that triggers enthusiasm.
   - Do you or your colleagues have this power?

These three powers are not elusive: They are demonstrated every day in all different kinds of places. Practitioners of these powers seem to block out the negativity around them, and, equally important, they positively influence the attitudes of others (Topchik, 2001, pp. 151, 156)."

Do you have the three powers of positive attitude?

Managing Workplace Negativity is available on loan from the Ohio State University Leadership Center. A complete listing of all the Leadership Center’s resources is available on our website http://leadershipcenter.osu.edu/

If you have any friends or colleagues who would like to receive Leadership Moments, please have them send an e-mail to flynn.61@osu.edu with the message: subscribe leadership moments

We appreciate your comments about Leadership Moments; please e-mail your comments to Beth Flynn, <flyn.61@osu.edu>