Ten Questions for Self-Development

1. Did you enlist a new mentor or find a new role model during the last year?
2. What have you done to expand the scope of the job responsibilities you enjoy most?
3. What training or educational experiences have you recently completed?
4. What was the biggest risk you took this year? Did it work out as you expected? What did you learn?
5. What did you do that made your boss look good?
6. Did you do anything that contributed to your community?
7. What part of your job did you realize you dislike? Can you change it, or at least minimize the negative aspects?
8. What new achievements can add to your resume?
9. What relationship with a friend, relative, or business associate were you able to improve? How did you accomplish that?
10. Do you have a list of specific personal and business goals for the coming year (1999, Positive Leadership, p.11)?

How are you doing?
